Library of Congress

Daniel Carroll to Thomas Jefferson, February 8, 1802, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital. Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Daniel Carroll to Jefferson

Washington Feby 8th 1802

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Sir/

In consequence of an application to the Comrs of Washington by Mr. Barry in the year 1800 for the removeal of the houses of Mrs Fenwick, situated in south Capitol street, and a valuation being had to that effect, & Mrs Fenwick having gone to a considerable expence in building a new house, under the expectation of receiving that valuation, which has since been refused her by the Commrs, as will appear by the inclosed letters. In the mean time her enclosures were removed, her garden broken up, & much incommoded in other respects.—I beg leave to submit the letters and valuation to you, & beg if you see proper, you will direct payment to be made—. I have the honor to be

Sir

Your Mo Obt Servt Danl Carroll of Dudn

[Ms., Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress.]

Commissioners' Note

Library of Congress

The President of the U. States having in person returned the letter from the Governour of Maryland with the papers accompanying it, which were transmitted to him yesterday, and having recommended that the same should be communicated to the Comee. to whom his Message of 11th. Ulto. was referred; the same were accordingly enclosed in a letter to Joseph N. Nicholson Chairman of the said Comee.

Feby. 9th. 1802

[P. 270, PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMISSIONERS, VI, 1800–02, in the National Archives.]

Commissioners' Note

A Note of this date received from the President of the U. States enclosing a letter to him from Daniel Carroll of Dudgtn. dated 8th. instant, with several letters which have passed between the

Feby. 9th. 1802

Commissioners, Mr. Carroll and Mrs. Fenwick on the subject of removing her houses, also the valuation of those houses by Messrs. Harbaugh and Duncanson.

[Pp. 269–70, PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMISSIONERS, VI, 1800–02, in the National Archives.]